

“Cancion de la Comunidad”

By Carmen E. Quintana

Guitars: Dr. Jose Villarino, Olivia Puentes-Reynolds

Vocals: Carmen E. Quintana, Olivia Puentes-Reynolds

We'll build a community, we the parents
We'll build a community on this very day
We are advocates for our children
We'll build community, we the parents

How beautiful the day awakens,
With sky, sun and life
We are the warriors (educational advocates)
Surviving in the struggle,
Working and working,
So that we can get respect.

We know that we have to “act” as warriors,
We know that there is pride in our faith.
Parents, teachers and children
Together in the struggle
We'll build community, we the parents

The teachers are our strength,
Parents and teachers working together.
We are the warriors,
Surviving in the struggle,
Working and working,
In order to make change happen.

We'll build community with our children,
For they will be the fruit of our love.
They are the future of maintaining culture,
We'll build community with our children

How beautiful the day prepares for sleep,
With the moon and the many stars.
We are the warriors,
Surviving in the struggle,
Working and working,
Even in our dreams.

We'll build community, we are the parents.
Together we will create a new peace.
Parents, teachers and children together surviving the struggle.
We'll build community, we the parents
We'll build community with respect for all.
